Photography Contest

Hey photography enthusiast, we are looking for you! Tell the world your story through photographs and get a chance to feature on National Geographic where you can showcase your work in front of renowned filmmaker, Imtiaz Ali, along with veteran photographer Raghu Rai.

Students are invited to submit entries to a specially-curated virtual platform, using any type of camera equipment, including but not limited to mobile phones, DSLRs and digital cameras to click images based on the following themes:

1. Culture and celebrations
2. Nature and wildlife
3. Monuments and landscapes
4. People and portraits

Don't miss out. It's time to take that shot.
